

JOB ADVERT

Job Title; Teachers for Piano, Saxophone, Jazz Drums, Trumpet (Brass-Instruments), Voice Training, Violin, Recorder & Flute

Organization: International School of Music, Languages and Studio Production (IMLS & Friends)

Duty Station: Masaka Uganda

Reports to: Head Music Department.

About Us:

IMLS "International School of Music, Languages and Studio Production" is an academic institution and center of culture in the city of Masaka in Uganda/East Africa. This institution and cultural center combines all spheres of Music, Languages like German, English, Swahili and French, Computer courses with an integrated Music-Studio that is to be constructed in Masaka/ Uganda. The school tentatively opened its gates officially in September 2016 at Kitovu Music Center, to give the needy, the talented and poor children the chance to experience moral stability, structure and community life through music. More to that, the IMLS is intended to be a meeting place for international musicians and cultural scientists, ethnomusicologists and people who are interested in promoting East-African and European Music Cultures. Due to the increasing number of students we therefore advertise for the above posts.

Job Summary: The Teacher will primarily ensure that all the students and young children trained the instruments as indicated on the time table and accorded a chance to attain at least learn one instrument of interest as registered for, based on their abilities and discipline.

Key Responsibilities & Duties.

- Conduct individual assessments of students and development of personalized learning programs and timetables.
- Ensure students in the Creative Learning of voices and music instruments are supervised at all times.
- Provide various experiences and activities for the including songs, games and storytelling about music instruments.
- Ensure safe and conducive learning environment for the instruments and voice trainings.
- Develop lesson plans for the classes, teach, implement and assist in completing the assessment of the students.
- Assist in developing individualized plans and provide a nurturing environment, which support the individual development instruments playing of each student.
- Promote a music reading culture amongst the students to improve their reading skills.
- Organize monthly presentations for the students to exhibit what they have learnt.
- Keep students records updated with the relevant information.

- Responsible for maintaining the time table.
- Discuss identified problems and needs with professionals as appropriate while keeping a high level of confidentiality for the student's information.
- Assist in receiving and distribution of music school instruments.
- Participate in the IMLS internal and external teacher's trainings
- Build the student's esteem and comfort them when needed during instruments training.
- Be familiar with emergency procedures.
- Clearly and effectively communicate in a manner that children and students understand.
- Any other duties as may be assigned by the school manager.
- Participate in the orientation of the newly recruited staff.

Person Specifications

- The applicants for the IMLS teacher job should possess a diploma or certificates in particular areas of instrument training or related field of study.
- Able to play the music instruments perfectly.
- At least two years of experience teaching or playing particular music instruments.
- An equivalent combination of relevant education and/or experience may be substitute
- Possess the professional and personal characteristics necessary for working effectively with school personnel and the community.
- Excellent verbal and written communication skills
- Able to identify and solve problems; ability to make decisions
- Able to handle multiple tasks simultaneously
- Excellent time-management and organizational skills
- Able to work with volunteers in teaching particular instruments.
- Knowledge about playing more than two instruments is an added advantage.

How to Apply:

All suitably qualified and interested candidates should send in their applications (hard copies) containing a motivation letter and academic documents addressed to the Senior Manager Human Resources, International school of Music languages and studio production, P.O. Box 1185 Masaka Uganda OR a soft copy to infoimlsandfriends@gmail.com. They should also prepare to give a small performance of 10 Minutes in their instruments of specialization.

The applicants must attach the following requirements;

An application letter with a detailed Curium virtue (CV)

Three referees (outside IMLS)

Deadline: 30th January 2018 by 5pm. The current school premises are at Kitovu behind msgr Ngoby's Grave.

NB: Only shortlisted candidates will be contacted